

The Vineyard of the Lord

Ps 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20

Chris Muglia

Response

E D/E A Am E Esus⁴

The vine-yard of the Lord is the house of Is - ra - el. The

Verse 1

7 E D/E A Am F#m7 B E

A vine from Eg-ypt you trans-plan-ted; you drove a-way the na-tions and plan-ted it.

15 G# C#m7 E/B F#/A# A D E/B B B (to Response)

It put forth its fol-lage to the Sea, its shoots as far as the Ri - ver.

Verse 2

24 E D/E A Am F#m7 B E G#7

Why have you bro-ken down its walls, so that ev-ery pass-er - by pucks its fruit, the

32 C#m7 E/B F#/A# F#m7 D E/B B B (to Response)

boar from the for-rest lays it waste, and the beasts of the field feed up - on it?

Verse 3

40 E D A Am7 F#m7 B

Once a - gain, O Lord of hosts, look down. look down from heav - en, and

47 E G#7 C#m7 E/B F#/A#

see; take care of this vine, and pro - tect what your right hand has

52 F#m7 D Bsus⁴ B (to Response) plan - ted the son of man whom you your - self made strong.

57 Verse 4 E D A Am F#m7

Then we will no more with - draw from you; give us new life, and we will

63 B E G#7 C#m7 E/B F#/A#

call up-on your name. O Lord, God of hosts, re - store us; if your

70 A D A B_{sus}⁴ B7 (to Response)

face shine up - on us, then we shall be saved.